PC:

By this petition the petitioner questions the order issued by the office of the Tribal Development, Maharashtra State, Nashik canceling the select list prepared earlier and ordering fresh recruitment in accordance with the procedure established. The challenge is that the reason given for cancellation of the earlier select list is not valid and therefore it cannot be done. Assuming that it is so, the petitioner has not vested right to appointment even after due selection. This aspect of law is made clear by the Supreme Court of India in the case of Shankarsan Dash v. Union of India, AIR 1991 SC 1612. Therefore there being no vested right to appointment even after due selection no right of the petitioner is infringed by the cancellation. We therefore see no reason to interfere. Petition dismissed.
